North Franklin Federal Credit Union prospective volunteers

A volunteer for NFFCU must be an active member in good standing with the credit union, and have a sincere interest in the credit union and the financial welfare of its members. NFFCU volunteers are very much needed and welcomed.

NFFCU follows their by-laws and have certain criteria that must be met, to ensure the soundness of the credit union and that the membership is kept in mind.

Qualifications:

Directors should have an understanding of the kinds of problems faced by the typical member of the credit union, and be sincerely interested in helping the members help themselves through effective use of the credit union. They should have an understanding of the structure of the credit union, and what the credit union movement is all about.

Supervisory Committee works with management and the Board of Directors to implement safety and soundness of the Credit Union. They are appointed by the Board of Directors at the first meeting after the annual meeting or as vacancies occur. Letters of intent must be approved by the board of directors and given to the nominating committee. The members are selected from requests of members interested in serving the credit union.

Credit Committee reviews loan applications that are referred to them by the loan officers. They are appointed by the Board of Directors at the first meeting after the annual meeting or as vacancies occur. Letters of intent must be approved by the board of directors and given to the nominating committee. The members are selected from requests of members interested in serving the credit union.

All members of the Board of Directors, Supervisory Committee and Credit Committee will be bonded with CUNA and will sign a confidentiality agreement concerning credit union and member's information

From time to time training will be offered to enhance the knowledge and comfort ability of the position that is held. This will be in compliance with NCUA.

If you are interested in volunteering for any one of the above positions please submit a letter of intent to the nominating committee along with a short biography and qualifications.

Thank you for your interest
